Youth Leadership Summit ends

Compiled by Staff Correspondent

A three-day long youth leadership summit concluded at the Bangabandhu International Conference Centre in the city yesterday.

Bangladesh Youth Leadership Center (BYLC) organized the event with Dr Gowher Rizvi, international affairs adviser to the prime minister, was in the chair.

Foreign Minister Dipu Moni, US Ambassador James F Moriarty, Charles Undeland, senior governance specialist of the World Bank, and DYLC President Ejaj Ahmed also spoke at the program.

A total of 50 speakers and 200 delegates participated in the three-day summit, which aimed to bridge the gap between the youth and the eminent personalities.
