The Bangladesh Youth Leadership Center celebrated its second graduation ceremony of junior leadership program at BRAC Centre Inn in the capital on Saturday.

To bridge the growing divide between the youth and the older generation in society and to foster a sense of empathy and responsibility among the younger generation, BYLC had arranged its second junior leadership program, said a press release.

Presided over by the BYLC president, Ejaj Ahmad, the ceremony was addressed by the BYLC chairperson, Manzoor Hasan, and the American Centre director, Lauren Lovelace, as special guests.

A total of 38 secondary school and madrasa students were selected from 250 applications.
